

Merchandise Planner

We currently have a fantastic Planning opportunity for a highly motivated and experienced individual to build on their already successful career to join our 100% happy Merchandise team located at the Geelong National Office

Reporting to the Merchandise Manager and working closely with the Buying team, you will be passionate about product, whilst visionary and strategically focussed. You play a pivotal role in contributing to the sales growth and profitability of the business by delivering key profit objectives through innovation, customer awareness, inventory management an analysis in order to maximise revenue, margin and stock turn performance. You will manage a significant open to buy and need to be experienced in Product planning, Financial Planning, budgeting and category management.

You will have demonstrated experience in merchandise planning, whilst capitalising on opportunities within the business. Your highly developed computer literacy, especially in Arthur Financial and Product, Excel is essential along with your analytical skills and strong commercial acumen is invaluable. Your strength in forecasting, interpreting marketing trends and executing strategic direction to achieve budget results. Your ability to build rapport, gain credibility and utilise your persuasive interpersonal style will see you succeed in this challenging role.

To apply:

Email your application to Target Recruitment team, at employment@target.com.au quoting: M1007 Merchandise Planner as the subject heading.

Target Values Diversity

