

Whistleblower Policy

Purpose

At Target, we are committed to the highest standards of conduct and ethical behaviour in all of our business activities, including promoting and supporting a culture of honest and ethical behaviour, compliance and good corporate governance.

All team members, contractors and suppliers are encouraged to report any issues that they believe are 'Reportable Conduct' without fear of intimidation, disadvantage or reprisal. Target will support and protect individuals who report violations as detailed in this policy.

Policy application

This policy applies to all Target team members, former team members, contractors, suppliers and their employees. 'Target team member' means all employees, managers, directors, agency staff and independent contractors, engaged on any basis including on a full-time, part-time, casual or temporary basis. Associates of Target and relatives of individuals who are eligible whistleblowers can also make a report under this policy.

What is Reportable Conduct?

Reportable Conduct includes any conduct, whether actual or suspected, of a director, officer, employee or contractor of Target or a third party who has business dealings with Target, which the Whistleblower reasonably suspects:

- is dishonest, fraudulent or corrupt;
- is illegal, such as theft, drug sale or use, violence, harassment or intimidation, criminal damage to property or other breaches of state or federal law;
- is unethical or in breach of Target's policies, such as dishonestly altering company records or data, adopting questionable accounting practices or willfully breaching Target's Code of Conduct or other policies or procedures;
- involves bribery or corruption or otherwise breaches the Wesfarmers Anti-bribery Policy;
- is potentially damaging to Target, a Target team member or third party, such as unsafe work practices, environmental damage, health risks or substantial wasting of company resources;
- amounts to an abuse of authority;
- may cause financial loss to Target or damage its reputation or be otherwise detrimental to Target's interests;
- involves harassment, discrimination, victimisation or bullying, other than personal work-related grievances as defined in the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Corporations Act); or
- involves any other kind of serious impropriety.

What if I know something?

At Target, we rely on our team members to do the right thing. It's expected that a team member who has reasonable grounds to suspect Reportable Conduct will make a report. The conduct or action may have already taken place, may be occurring now, or may happen in the future. Failure by a team member to raise Reportable Conduct could result in disciplinary action against the team member.

Whistleblower Policy

How to make a report

Team members and other eligible whistleblowers can make a report in the following ways:

- contact Target's Whistleblower Hotline
- make a report to a Target Protected Disclosure Officer
- raise the matter with a senior manager within Target

A senior manager includes a director, company secretary, or anyone in the company who makes, or participates in making decisions that affect the whole, or a substantial part, of the business of the company, or has the capacity to affect significantly the company's financial standing. This may include an executive general manager, general counsel or general manager.

If a team member wishes to remain anonymous, they can make an anonymous report to the Target Whistleblower Hotline or send a written statement directly to one of the Target Protected Disclosure Officers.

Target's Whistleblower Hotline

A report can be made to Target's Whistleblower Hotline:

Method	Contact detail	Available to
Phone	1800 201 206	Australia only
Email	Whistleblower.Target@city-holdings.com.au	Australia and international

Target's Whistleblower Hotline is a confidential service provided by an external provider, City Holdings, who will forward the matter to Target's Protected Disclosure Officers. Emails to the Target Whistleblower Hotline can be in languages other than English.

Reports may also be made by post to 2 Kendall Street, Williams Landing, VIC, 3027 (marked to the attention of one of the Protected Disclosure Officers referred to above).

Whistleblower Policy

Investigation

Target will investigate all cases of Reportable Conduct as soon as possible after the matter has been reported and, if appropriate, provide feedback to the Whistleblower regarding the investigation's progress and/or outcome (subject to considerations of the privacy of those against whom allegations are made).

Investigations will be conducted in a timely, thorough, confidential, objective and fair manner and as is reasonable and appropriate relating to the nature of the Reportable Conduct and all of the circumstances.

It will usually be appropriate for the Protected Disclosure Officer to refer the complaint to a person that has experience in the area of the alleged Reportable Conduct. The person investigating may need the assistance of experts or other professional advisers to conduct a preliminary investigation.

If there is a conflict of interest or where the Protected Disclosure Officer determines the matter should be investigated by an external third party, the investigation will be referred to:

- the Wesfarmers General Manager – Legal (Retail), or
- an objective subject matter expert, such as a law firm or professional services firm, for investigation

Target will give the Whistleblower an explanation if it deems an investigation is not required.

If the matter has already been investigated through an alternative grievance process and the complainant separately raises the matter as being a case of Reportable Conduct, consideration will be given as to whether the matter should be re-investigated or investigated by an external third party.

Whistleblower protection

No detrimental conduct

Target commits to confidentiality and fairness in all matters raised under this policy. Whistleblowers will not be personally disadvantaged in their employment with Target or suffer other detrimental treatment (for example, dismissal, disciplinary action, threats or other unfavourable treatment) as a result of making a report in accordance with this policy.

Target recognises that "whistleblowing" can be very stressful and difficult. Provided the Whistleblower has reasonable grounds to suspect Reportable Conduct and that they themselves have not engaged in serious misconduct or illegal conduct, the Whistleblower will not be subject to disciplinary action in relation to matters that they report.

If a Whistleblower is subjected to detrimental treatment they should raise the matter with a senior supervisor or a Protected Disclosure Officer immediately. Any such retaliatory action will be treated as serious misconduct and will be dealt with under Target's disciplinary procedures.

Protection of identity and confidentiality

Subject to law, managers receiving reports and Target will not disclose details that may identify the Whistleblower (for example, to senior management and directors, or external legal advisers for the purposes of investigation and advice) without obtaining the Whistleblower's prior consent. Any disclosure to which the Whistleblower consents will be strictly confidential.

If a Whistleblower reports matters which must be reported to the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC), the Australian Federal Police (AFP) or the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA) then Target is required by law to disclose the Whistleblower's identity to those bodies.

All files and records created from an investigation will be retained under strict security. The unauthorised release of information without the Whistleblower's consent, to any person not involved in the investigation (other than senior managers or directors who need to know to take appropriate action or for corporate governance purposes), is a breach of this policy. Such a release will be regarded as a serious misconduct and will be dealt with under Target's disciplinary procedures.

False and vexatious reports

Target will not tolerate false or vexatious whistleblower reports. Any false or vexatious whistleblower reports will be treated as a serious disciplinary matter.

A false or vexatious whistleblower report could have significant effects on Target's reputation and the reputation of other team members and, could also cause considerable waste of time and resources.

A vexatious report is a groundless report made with the intent to cause distress, detriment or harassment to the subject of the report. A false report is when the reporter does not honestly have reasonable grounds to suspect Reportable Conduct may have already taken place, may be occurring now, or may happen in the future.

Reporting procedures

A report will be provided annually to the Audit and Risk Committees of both Kmart Australia Group and Wesfarmers Limited to enable Wesfarmers to address issues at a divisional and/or Group level. These reports will be made on a 'no names' basis, maintaining the confidentiality of matters raised under this policy. Generally, these reports will:

- provide a summary of reportable conduct incident reports made that relate to Target on a 'no names' basis, their status and action being taken
- identify any patterns of conduct, for example: patterns within or across the division
- make recommendations, as appropriate, including in relation to allocation of resources or areas requiring further attention

The Wesfarmers Audit and Risk Committee will receive copies of all divisional Board Whistleblower reports, and Whistleblower reports from Protected Disclosure Officers (as appropriate). In addition, serious and/or material Reportable Conduct will be considered by the Protected Disclosure Officers for immediate referral to the Chair of the Audit and Risk Committee.

Policy review and availability

This policy will be reviewed annually and will be published on the Target intranet (MyTarget) under Policies and Procedures > Company Policies.

² Wesfarmers' external auditor can be found in its Annual Report and as at March 2019 was Ernst & Young, Darren Lewsen Lead Partner.

³ Wesfarmers' actuary as at March 2019 is Finity Consulting Pty Ltd.

⁴ Such as where the disclosure has been made to ASIC or APRA, or where the disclosure qualifies as a public interest or emergency disclosure.

Whistleblower Policy

4. anyone who causes or threatens to cause detriment to a Whistleblower or another person in the belief or suspicion that a report has been made, or may have been made, proposes to or could be made, may be guilty of an offence and may be liable for damages;
5. a Whistleblower's identity cannot be disclosed to a Court or tribunal except where considered necessary; and
6. the person receiving the report commits an offence if they disclose the substance of the report or the Whistleblower's identity, without the Whistleblower's consent, to anyone except ASIC, APRA, the AFP or a lawyer for the purpose of obtaining legal advice or representation in relation to the report.

Confidentiality

If a report is made, the identity of the discloser must be kept confidential unless one of the following exceptions applies:

- a. the discloser consents to the disclosure of their identity;
- b. disclosure of details that might reveal the discloser's identity is reasonably necessary for the effective investigation of the matter;
- c. the concern is reported to ASIC, APRA, or the AFP; or
- d. the concern is raised with a lawyer for the purpose of obtaining legal advice or representation.

Whistleblower Policy

7. the person receiving the report commits an offence if they disclose the substance of the report or the Whistleblower's identity, without the Whistleblower's consent, to anyone except the Commissioner of Taxation, the AFP or a lawyer for the purpose of obtaining legal advice or representation in relation to the report.

Confidentiality

If a report is made, the identity of the discloser will be kept confidential unless one of the following exceptions applies:

- a. the discloser consents to the disclosure of their identity;
- b. disclosure of details that might reveal their identity is reasonably necessary for the effective investigation of the allegations;
- c. the concern is reported to the Commissioner of Taxation or the AFP; or
- d. the concern is raised with a lawyer for the purpose of obtaining legal advice or representation.

Whistleblower Policy

Guidelines for managing whistleblower reports under the whistleblower laws

The Target Whistleblower Policy sets out a summary of Target's commitment to the protection of whistleblowers. The policy applies to support and protect persons who become aware of actual or suspect, on reasonable grounds, potential cases of Reportable Conduct.

1. A director or senior manager who receives a whistleblower complaint should:
 - a. Provide the Whistleblower with a copy of the Acknowledgment and Consent to Disclosure for Investigation and Reporting Purposes ("Consent") (on page 10 of this policy).
 - b. If the Whistleblower signs the Consent, refer the matter to one of the Authorised Persons referred to in the Consent for the matter to be investigated.
 - c. If the Whistleblower is unwilling to sign the consent, you may disclose the substance of the complaint to an Authorised Person provided that any identifying information about the Whistleblower is removed or redacted, so that the complaint as referred to does not disclose the identity of the Whistleblower or information that is likely to lead to the identification of the Whistleblower (except where reasonably necessary for the purposes of investigating the matter).
2. Attached is a form of consent to enable complaints to be disclosed to an Authorised Person for proper investigation.
3. Whistleblower laws protect a whistleblowers' confidentiality and against detrimental conduct towards them for making a report. It is therefore critical that such reports are treated with the upmost confidentiality and addressed according to this guideline.
4. Severe penalties may apply where a whistleblower's identity is revealed in breach of whistleblower laws or they are subjected to detrimental conduct, including in relation to their employment, as a result of making a report under this Policy.
